The Inn's rich history and village charm offer the ideal setting to create lasting memories.

Stowe, VT, December 2007—Nestled in the heart of one of New England's most famous ski resorts, charming rooms with modern amenities, mouthwatering cuisine, and abundant family fun all combine to make Stowe's Green Mountain Inn the ideal spot for a holiday family retreat. Just outside the doors of the historic Inn, guests can enjoy traditional wintertime fun with sleigh rides, snowshoeing, skiing, or relaxing in the Inn's year-round outdoor heated pool. And to celebrate the holiday season, the Inn offers two packages: the Vermont Christmas Tree and Christmas in the Village.

The exceptional Vermont Christmas Tree Package allows guests to choose a fresh-cut Vermont tree from local Payne's Christmas Tree Farm, who can even ship the tree to a guest's home. The package also includes two-nights lodging, full country breakfast daily, and choice of the Walton Blodgett watercolor print "The Christmas Tree" or a hand-painted Green Mountain Inn commemorative Christmas ornament. Prices range from $186 to $281 per person.

The distinguished Christmas in the Village Package includes a three-night stay, with a welcome bottle of the Inn's signature wine and a platter of assorted cheeses, fruits and nuts, choice of a hand-painted Green Mountain Inn commemorative Christmas ornament or a Walton Blodgett watercolor print, a horse-drawn sleigh ride, full country breakfast, and Christmas dinner in the Inn's Main Street Dining Room. Prices range from $579 to $829 per person.
