The Green Mountain Inn Offers Relief from Pain at the Pump Historic downtown Stowe inn offers to fill guests' gas tanks.

Stowe, VT—May 9, 2007—To ease the pain drivers are feeling at the pump, one of Vermont's most historic inns is offering relief to its guests in the form of a special room package that includes a $50 gas card for a free ride home.

Booking summer travel now guarantees some of the best deals especially since AAA is warning that gas prices may hit a new record by the end of May. Guests at the Green Mountain Inn can take advantage of the Free Ride Home Package deal from March through September. Fortunately for Vermont vacationers the state is home to some of the least expensive gas prices in the country, according to GasBuddy.com. Several stations in Vermont report gas prices well below the national average of $3.04.

Green Mountain Inn guests don't need to fill their tanks to enjoy outstanding outdoor activities including: hiking, biking, canoeing, kayaking, swimming, fishing, golf, and more. "The unique aspect about the Green Mountain Inn is that we are centrally located in Stowe village, so it's very convenient for our guests to be able to walk to shops or hiking trails right from our front door," said Patti Clark, Innkeeper at The Green Mountain Inn. Plus the Inn offers two acclaimed restaurants onsite, the Whip Bar & Grill and the Main Street Dining Room. And access to a free Stowe shuttle is available across the street from the Inn.

The Green Mountain Inn's Free Ride Home Package includes two nights lodging, continental breakfast each day and a $50 Gas Card. In order to take advantage of the Free Ride Home Package contact The Green Mountain Inn reservations staff directly by calling 1-800-253-7302, or online at www.GreenMountainInn.com. Prices range from $158 to $207 per person, March 18th to June 14th and from $163 to $270 per person, June 15th to September 20th. Green Mountain Inn's sister property, www.WilloughVale.com, also offers the Free Ride Home Package.

The Green Mountain Inn is one of Vermont's most historic hotels. The main building and adjacent Depot building are listed as number 13 and 14 on the National Register of Historic Places. Stowe's original inn retains much of its antique charm offering 104 rooms, suites and townhouses. Guests enjoy two acclaimed restaurants, the Whip Bar & Grill and the Main Street Dining Room, specialty shops, a year-round heated outdoor pool, afternoon tea and cookies, health club facility, massage services, and much more.
